Congress. Probably no man in the State is so well known as Daggett. His name is inseparable from the Enterprise. He is acknowledged the best newspaper, writer on the coast. He is a man among men, a giant in intellect, sharp in debate, has a great warm heart, and as a Ropublican stands at the head of the list. No man is entitled to more from the people of this State. He would be a representative of the whole State. No corporation collar covers his neck, nobody can justly claim him thinking, his own talking, and Right majority should be as large as possi-

STATE TREASURZE.

L. L. Crockett, of Reno, is the nominee for State Treasurer. The Convention has our thanks for this compliment. Mr. Crockett is a strong man tout a good man, and he will have no trouble in giving the will have no trouble in giving the cossary bond, even though a million dollars should be required. Mr. Crockett has been identified with the State from its infancy; has held many positions of public and private frust, and has a record second to no other man in the State. Hon. Thos, P. Hawley, the present Chief Justice of our Supreme Court, was complimented with the nomination by acciamation. THE SAN PRANCISCO VACANCY.

In view of the vacancy created by the resignation of Thomas Morris, or e of the delegates to the Constitu tional Convention elected by the Workingmen, by reason of diagnali heation, there is likely to be some controversy over the right of succession to his seat. The Workingmen's delegation from the city claim that they are entitled to the nomination, and that in justice their nomines stood that they will put forward John R Sharpstein, an able lawyer, who was defeated as a numinee for delegate at large. On the other hand, the Non Partisans set up that, as Morris was ineligible, the candi date receiving the highest number of votes next to the Workingmen's tick-Every Spaniar! in Cubs can be a st is entitled to the seat. On this ground it is inti-mated that the Non Partisans will in sist that the majority rules, and will nomicate Mr. Lloyd. Whether the gentlem in desires the succession is not authoritatively atated; but it is quite certain that if the Non Partisaus determine to take advantage of their majority in the Convention, Mr. Lloyd is the one whom they could ashore near the Heads, has been got most consistently nominate, and he off and towed into the San Francisco is the gentleman who would be more acceptable to all parties than any other candidate they could select He is a gentleman eminently quali fied for the position, and the best in terests of all classes of society would undoubtedly be served by his presence in the Convention. -S, F. DANGER DIMHED BY DARRNESS.

Owing to the darkness that fills our deep mining shafts our miners are less concons of the dangers of their trade than they would otherwisbe. A miner standing upon a bit of plank thrown across a shaft 1,000 or 1,500 feat in depth sees little o the pit ya ning beneath his feet. The da, kness rises up till it almost seems to form a floor under his plank giv ing a place on which his eyes may rest and preventing any unsteadiness of the head. Place the same shaft on the surface of the earth, and let tower 1,500 feet into the air and proad light of day, and the miner standing on his single plank, at an elevation three times as great as the allest church soire, would be unable to move—would be paralyzed. Looking down through the awful debth below he would clutch the nearest timbers, afmid to make a move in any direction. Make for him doors on each side of this shaft, representing the openings at the stations, and he would not be likely to leap from door to door agross the yawning shaft as he does underneath the ground where the dirk rises up and makes a seeming floor between the doors It is undoubtedly the darkness that benumbs the sense of the miner to the danger to which he is exposed when passing to and fro across shafts and winzes, or when climbing the interior of their compartments, trust feet afforded by the narrow ledges of the timbers projecting it im the walls -Enterprise

DANGEROUS RAILHOADING,-The Eastern mail is late every evening now, and the prospect is that it will con-tinue so for some time. This is co er-ioned by the fear that the Union Pacific trains will be ditabled by desperadues who are expected to rob the rains at any time, a plot for such intended robbery having come to the knowledge of the Railroad Directors sometime since. For this reason pra-cautions are taken in passing over bridges and bad places, and considerable time is thus consoned, which render the arrival of the Union Pacific there is reason to fear the ditching of the train. -Sall Lake Herald, Sept
